Rep. Biasiucci and Sen. Borrelli Applaud Board of Supervisors for Making Mohave County a 2nd Amendment Sanctuary County

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Leo Biasiucci (R-5) and Senator Sonny Borrelli (R-5) today released the following statements after the Board of Supervisors' unanimous vote making Mohave County a 2nd Amendment sanctuary county.

“This resolution sends a great message to others in Arizona and across the country that Mohave County will always fight to defend our constitutional rights,” said Representative Biasiucci. “I am proud to represent this district, and I will never stop defending our 2nd Amendment at the state level.”

“Although this is symbolic in nature, this reaffirms the county’s commitment, as well as mine, to support and defend the U.S. and Arizona constitutions,” said Senator Borrelli.

Representative Biasiucci and Senator Borrelli joined U.S. Congressman Paul Gosar and other supporters at today’s Mohave County Board of Supervisors meeting.
